What we think of TECH?
I love it! I've got a smartphone, a tablet, a laptop and a fitness tracker. Every day I look at websites, send lots of texts and stream music. I can't live without technology. I go online after school and I talk to my friends all night. Everyone's got their own YouTube channel - it's brilliant!
I've got my smartphone with me all the time - at home, on the bus, on the street. I talk to my friends online all the time. We stream music, play games and watch videos. My brother's got a digital camera, but I use my smartphone to take photos.
Technology's OK. I've got a smartphone and a laptop. I sometimes use them to look at websites to help me with homework. My sister's got a fitness tracker, but I haven't got one. I don't want to know how many steps I do when I walk!
My friends don't understand, but I don't like smartphones. Why don't people put them down and talk to each other? um I've got a computer at home and I use it to look at websites, but I haven't got a smartphone. There's one thing I like - my fitness tracker. I use it when I walk and run.

5 Look at the pictures and read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1, 2 or 3 words.

Nick and his old guitar

Nick loved music. He learned to play the piano when he was nine and the guitar at ten. When he was eleven his family had a birthday party for him. His sister gave him a small radio and said, 'Now you can listen to music in any place!' Nick was happy. He listened to his radio on the bus to school. The bus driver liked the radio, too.

Nick had a dream that he was famous. In his dream he played his old guitar. When he woke up, he listened to the radio. He liked the songs and he sang, too. After school, his mother asked him, 'Nick, don't you want to play the piano now?' But Nick said, 'No, I'm listening to the radio now.' He took his guitar off the table in his room and put it in the basement.

For one week Nick listened to the radio every day. He didn't play any music. His parents were sad. They liked the radio, but they liked Nick's music, too. One evening Nick thought of a song that he wanted to hear, but the song wasn't on the radio. He went to the basement and got his old guitar. He started to play. His parents were happy to listen to his music again.
