

Can se usa para expresar capacidad y posibilidad.

can / can't

he can run	él puede correr
we can't run	nosotros no podemos correr
Can you run ... ?	¿Tú puedes correr...?

Short answers

Yes, I can. / No, I can't.

GRAMMAR APPENDIX, page 51

7 Completa las frases con la forma correcta de can.

- My sister is 18, so she can get her driving licence.
- He can't meet friends this week because he's studying for exams.
- What languages can you speak?
- I've got some time, so I can help you now.
- Can you go to the supermarket this afternoon?
- Jo broke her leg, so she can't participate in the competition.

Could se usa para hablar de habilidades pasadas y expresar posibilidad.

could / couldn't

she could drive	ella sabía conducir
I couldn't drive	yo no sabía conducir
Could they drive ... ?	¿Ellos/as sabían conducir...?

Short answers

Yes, they could. / No, they couldn't.

GRAMMAR APPENDIX, page 51

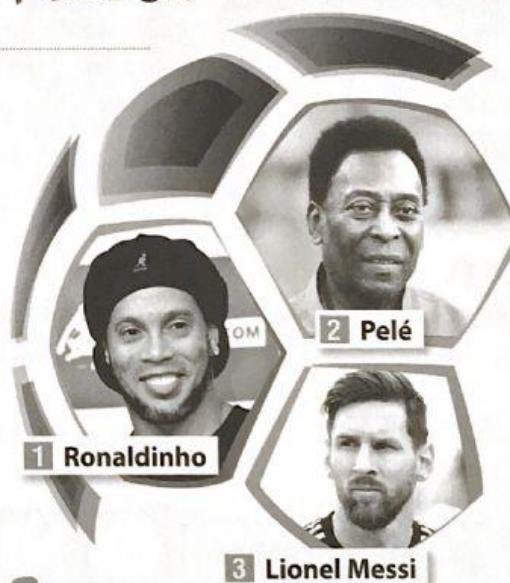

8 Completa las frases con la forma correcta de could.

- Could you run a marathon last year?
- I couldn't go out last night because I was too tired.
- My sister is very clever. She could read at a very young age.
- Could 16-year-olds get married in the 1800s?
- He spoke very fast, so I couldn't understand him.
- Brad's very intelligent. He could do difficult maths when he was only 10.

9 Completa las frases sobre una persona famosa con can, can't, could o couldn't. Luego adivina quién es.

- Today, you can often find his name at the top of lists of the best footballers of all time.
- His parents couldn't buy him a football or football shoes when he was a child because they were very poor.
- As a young boy in Brazil, he didn't need shoes to play football well. He could play without them.
- He isn't only a talented footballer. He can also write music. He wrote songs for some famous Brazilian pop stars.
- He couldn't play professional football now because he's too old. He stopped playing in the 1970s.

THE PERSON IS:

Must se usa para expresar obligación y mustn't, para expresar prohibición.

must / mustn't

you must stop	vosotros/as debéis parar
we mustn't stop	nosotros/as no debemos parar

→ GRAMMAR APPENDIX, page 51

10 Completa las frases con must o mustn't.

- We mustn't eat this cake. It isn't ours.
- I _____ clean my room once a week. It's a rule in my house.
- You _____ be quiet in the library.
- You _____ swim here. It isn't safe.
- It's late. I _____ go now.

Should se usa para dar o pedir consejo.

should / shouldn't

they should walk	ellos/as deberían andar
you shouldn't walk	tú no deberías andar
Should I walk ... ?	¿Debería andar...?

Short answers

Yes, you should. / No, you shouldn't.

→ GRAMMAR APPENDIX, page 51

11 Completa las frases con la forma correcta de should.

- Should we watch this movie or is it too frightening?
- You _____ call Ben now. He wants to talk to you.
- Chloe _____ go to bed very late. She needs seven hours of sleep.
- You _____ work hard at school to get good marks.
- I know I _____ eat a lot of junk food.
- _____ I buy these earrings for Mum?

12 Elige la respuesta correcta para completar frases sobre leyes y tradiciones de varias partes del mundo.

- In Chile, all children should / must go to school. Students mustn't / couldn't leave school until they are 18.
- Two hundred years ago, women can't / couldn't go to university in Britain, so only men should / could get good jobs.
- In the Philippines, people mustn't / shouldn't get divorced because it is prohibited. They must / can stay married forever.
- Many doctors believe women shouldn't / can't have babies at home because it can / must be dangerous. But in Holland, about 30% of mothers prefer staying at home.
- In some countries, women shouldn't / mustn't choose their husbands. Their parents decide who they could / can marry.

13 Completa las preguntas con can, could o should. Luego contéstalas.

- Can 14-year-old teenagers leave school in your country?
.....
- What time young children go to bed on a school night?
.....
- women study at university when your grandmother was young?
.....
- weddings be big events? What do you think?
.....
- When teenagers start driving lessons in your country?
.....

