

Listening the weather phenomena

Instruction : Listen and fill the missing words to complete the sentences.

Speaker 1

I stood there [] when I saw the water pulling back from the beach. People were going towards it to see the creatures it []. I didn't know what was [] until, out at sea, I saw the wall of water and []. I realised what it was. I started shouting as I ran for higher ground.

Speaker 2

I think it was the [] weather we have ever had. The whole time I could barely move. I spent most of the time in front of a fan drinking []. I was [] so much that I had to cover my furniture in towels. I have never felt so [] and it lasted for a whole week.

Speaker 3

The [] had been below zero for a week. The roads were like skating rinks. I saw a lorry [] the street out of control. The tyres couldn't get a grip on the icy road and it slid to the [] of the hill. [] though, no one was hurt.

Speaker 4

[] could go outside and we had to cover any gaps around the doors and windows so the particles couldn't get in. After it was over there was an orange blanket [] everything. You had to wear [] especially if it was windy, because it was difficult to [] for a few days until it all cleared.

Speaker 5

Nature is a [] thing. It amazes me that it can [] that kind of power. The sound of it really [] me, though. Every time I hear the deep rolling boom I want to cry. It's a very impressive [] when you know what's happening but that doesn't make me any less scared of it.