

UNIT 4. PATH TO MODERN SPAIN

RESTORATION

1. Choose the correct option.

He became king the day he was born.

His reign followed the First Republic.

In 1902, he turned 16 and began to rule.

He was a popular constitutional ruler for ten years.

He died at the age of 27.

His mother, María Cristina, ruled as regent.

2. Drag the sentences to the right period.

led to Spain losing Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippines.	helped achieved political stability.	was created by Antonio Cánovas del Castillo.
decided the result of elections in advance.	included Pío Baroja, Miguel de Unamuno and Antonio Machado.	wrote critically about Spain's politics.
was a group of writers and intellectuals.	was started by a short war with the United States.

The Crisis of '98...	The Generation of '98...	The Turno Pacífico...

3. Complete the text about Primo de Rivera.

As more and more people saw this system as _____ and damaging, confidence in the government fell and violent _____ broke out. A military _____ led by Miguel Primo de Rivera succeeded. Alfonso XIII _____ Primo de Rivera's dictatorship for _____ years.

