GRAMMAR – Comparatives

Recordamos los Comparativos: se usaban para comparar a dos personas, dos animales o dos cosas, poniendo alguna por encima de la otra en algún sentido (más inteligente, más rápido, más grande...). Si el adjetivo es CORTO, se añadía –ER THAN, y si era LARGO, se ponía MORE _____ THAN... Revisad el cuadro y los apuntes de hace un par de meses.

	Adjective	+ comparative	– comparative
Regular adjectives	kind	kinder	less kind
Two-syllable adjectives ending in -y	naughty lazy	naughtier lazier	less naughty less lazy
Two- or more syllable adjectives	generous hard-working	more generous more hard-working	less generous less hard-working

Our new show is A Modern Fairy Tale! It's got lots of familiar characters, but the story is new! It's more exciting than the traditional stories.

Arabella is the heroine. She's hard-working and kind, and she's strong, too!

Prince Daring is the hero. He's funnier and more confident than any other hero!

Arabella's sisters are less generous than Arabella. Their mother is more selfish than Arabella.

Find out what happens when the Big Bad Wolf moves into their neighbourhood!
