

Listen to the conversations and complete the gaps with the missing words

Unit 5 Recording 2

Conversation 1

- A: How's the family?
 B: Fine. Well, you remember Clara?
 A: Clara, your daughter? Yes, how old is she now?
 B: She's seventeen.
 A: She isn't []?
 B: No.
 A: Does she have a job?
 B: No, she doesn't. That's the problem.
 A: So what does she do all day?
 B: Well, she [] and ... and she sleeps a lot.
 A: What time does she get up?
 B: I don't know because I'm at work. At the weekend she [] at eleven.
 A: Does she want a job?
 B: I don't know. She doesn't talk much.
 A: What do you mean?
 B: Well, for example, in the evenings, we [] together. But Clara just sits there and listens to her music. Or she answers her phone and [] her friends, but not to her family. It drives me crazy.
 A: Does she ...?

listens to her music get up talks to get home
 at school watches television go to work go to bed watches TV gets up listen to have dinner

Conversation 2

- A: Hi, Paula.
 B: Hi. What's the problem? You look bad.
 A: It's Julio.
 B: Julio?
 A: Yeah. Well, he doesn't [] me.
 B: What do you mean?
 A: Well, I talk about my problems and he just checks his text messages or [].
 B: Does he talk to you?
 A: Yeah ... well, no ... he says 'Mmmm'.
 B: 'Mmmm'? What does that mean?
 A: It means he doesn't really listen.
 B: Oh, my boyfriend is exactly the same.

Conversation 3

- A: Hey, Wayne. What's up? You look tired.
 B: Yeah. No sleep.
 A: What's the problem?
 B: Neighbours. Problem neighbours. Or just one, the man in the flat upstairs.
 A: Why? Does he play loud music? Big parties?
 B: No, he doesn't. The problem is he works at night. He goes to work at six in the evening. I get home and I see him [] every night.
 A: What's his job?
 B: He sells coffee in a snack bar at the train station.
 A: And when does he []?
 B: About half past four. And then he [] for two or three hours.
 A: So when does he []?
 B: Oh, about six or seven.
 A: And what time do you get up?
 B: Huh! Now I [] at five. It's impossible to sleep. So I listen to music, drink coffee, then I go to work around eight.
 A: And when do you go to bed?
 B: Late. Midnight or 1a.m.
 A: Ooh, four hours' sleep. Not good.

Listen again and correct the false sentences

1 Clara has a job. Clara doesn't have a job.	1. Clara doesn't have a job.
2 Clara gets up at twelve at the weekend.	2.
3 Clara talks to her parents.	3.
4 Julio listens to Paula.	4.
5 Paula doesn't talk about her problems.	5.
6 Wayne's neighbour works at night.	6. TRUE
7 Wayne's neighbour gets home at five.	7.
8 Wayne gets up at eight o'clock.	8.