

Speaking vocabulary practice

Technology

1. Match and choose.

To do wonders for somebody/ something
To be one's Achilles heel
Can't make head nor tail of something
To be completely hooked
To be slow on the uptake
To do something at one's own pace
To take in something
In leaps and bounds
To pass exams with flying colors
To be a real nuisance
To get on someone's nerves

2. Choose Yes/No

1. Using computers ten hours a day really does wonders for my eyesight.
2. The lesson yesterday was so boring that everyone was completely hooked and felt asleep.
3. My neighbor's dog keeps barking at me every time I walk pass his house, which is a real nuisance.
4. I got 4/10 in my math exam. Honestly, math is my Achilles heel!
5. I found today's lesson very easy to follow because I couldn't make head nor tail of what the teacher was saying.
6. That kid kept pulling my hair and it's really getting on my nerves.
7. If a person studies in a class where students are at different ability levels, he can study at his own pace.
8. If we strictly follow our study plan and do not get caught up with any distractions, we can improve our English in leaps and bounds.