Hi!

Do you remember we talked about going to that new shopping centre? Well, my brother says he'll take us there this weekend if we want.

Great! My brother can go on either day, so which day is better for you?

Suggest It's actually my brother's birthday soon, so I'd like to buy him present while we're there – what do you think I should get him?

There's a cinema very near the shopping centre and ice skating too. We could do one of those after we've finished shopping. Which would you prefer?

See you soon
