Hi guys! I'm Leo and I'm going to visit the May Day Festival in London next month. There's lots to see and do there. I'm going there with my family and my best friend, Matt. The festival celebrates springtime. People decorate the maypole with flowers and streamers. Then, children hold the streamers and dance around the pole.

At the festival, we're going to watch Morris dancers playing music and dancing. We're also going to take a picture with the May Queen. It's going to be so much fun! What about you? What festival are you going to visit?
