

LISTENING 1

Who talks about the following things? Put P for Patti, E for Eric, or L for Lewis.

- |               |                    |
|---------------|--------------------|
| a being broke | d being practical  |
| b soccer      | e a quarter a week |
| c happiness   | f toy soldiers     |

Patti, Eric, and Lewis then answered two more questions. Underline the correct alternative for each highlighted money expression in their answers. Who do you think gave each answer?

Question 1: Does it matter if a wife earns more than her husband? How would you handle it?

- |  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| a "I would feel like a failure if my wife earned more than I did. It's a man's job to earn a life / living , and a woman's place is in the home." | b "It wouldn't worry me. I know lots of couples where the woman is the main breadwinner / breadbasket . In fact, it would be really good to have a wife who was loaded / full up! " | c "It wouldn't matter to me, but it might matter to my husband. It shouldn't matter, but human nature being what it is, it probably would." |
|--|---|---|

Question 2: If you were given $1,000 to save, spend, or invest, what would you do?

- |   |   |  |
|---|---|--|
| a "Uh, the sensible thing to do would be to save it for a rainy / windy day or pay off my debt / debit , but I think I'd rather splash out / across on a family vacation." | b "Well, I certainly wouldn't save or invest it - I'd probably throw / blow it on a new music system and some massive speakers." | c "I think I'd be tempted to get a new computer. Mine's getting a little slow. You can get them for peanuts / doughnuts these days, you know ..." |
