Writing Plan:

- When we write about somebody's daily routine, we start by saying who the person is and what his/her job is.
- In the second paragraph we write what he or she does every morning.
- In the third paragraph we write what the person does every afternoon.
- In the fourth paragraph we write what the person does every evening.
- In the last paragraph we write what he or she likes doing in his or her free time.

We use the present simple to write about someone's daily routine.
