

My life as an exchange student in Boston University.

Hi everyone, my name's Posey Gordon. I 1. from a small town in the United Kingdom called Northwich. Last year, I was transferred to Boston University to finish my 2. . I study social sciences.

I have to admit that Americans are a lot more different than British people. I share my room with Sydney, who is from Texas. She's my 3. . What does she 4. like? Sydney is very tall and thin, she 5. long blond hair and blue eyes. What 6. she like? Well, she's brilliant and friendly. However, she's quite messy to be honest. To start, she never 7. her own bed, when it's her day to do the cleaning, she 8. the dishes or the laundry. When I have to 9. my lunch, I find very nasty thing on the sink. I'm thinking about asking for a new roomie, I can't 10. this situation any longer.
