Bring up		have a harmonious or friendly relationship take responsibility		give assistance to (a person for example); bear all or part of the weight of (an object) twin		have discussions, to quarrel give up		someone who is damaged by having been given everything he/she wanted Allow		To assume or take the consequences of an action, a decision... keep in touch		to continue to talk to or write to someone blame		upset and angry because someone that you love seems interested in another person; unhappy and angry because someone has something that you want have rows		feel or declare that (someone or something) is responsible for a fault or wrong siblings		a person who never had a brother or sister deal with		to give permission for someone to do something, or to not prevent something from happening jealous		one of two children or animals born at the same birth.
look up to		to desist from; abandon refused to give up his/her efforts only child		Annoy especially by provocation spoiled		to be about (something); concern get along		To help someone to grow and get mature by giving him/her food, education and care forgive		a brother or sister bother		To communicate or be communicating with someone support		have a great deal of respect for someone get in touch		stop feeling angry or resentful towards (someone) for an offence, flaw, or mistake

LIVEWORKSHEETS