

Causative

Causative form expresses the idea that other person or people are doing something for you.

Present simple	He paints the house	He has the house painted .
----------------	----------------------------	--

Write the correct causative sentence in present form.

S + have / has + object + past participle

I supervise the production chain. I

1. John mows the lawn. John

2. We print the documents. We

3. My dad waters the plants. My dad

4. My sister interviews the applicants. My sister

5. I sweep the office's floor. I

6. Carlos sets up the equipment. Carlos

Causative past simple

S + had + object + past participle

- | | |
|---|-----------|
| 1. I cleaned the desk. | I |
| 2. Mary bought the groceries. | Mary |
| 3. Peter fixed the computer. | Peter |
| 4. My sister did the laundry. | My sister |
| 5. My friend changed the air conditioner. | My friend |
| 6. Fred ordered the meals. | Fred |

Causative present continuous

S + is/am/ are having + object + past participle

I am setting up the Christmas tree.

I

My sister is taking pictures.

My sister

My grandma is cooking tamales.

My grandma

My uncle is letting off fireworks.

My uncle

My cousin is hanging the pinata.

My cousin

My aunt is buying the cokes.

My aunt

Causative going to

S + is/am/ are going to have + object + past participle

I am going to set up the camping tent. I

My friend is going to load the truck with firewood. My friend

Ana is going to make the fire. Ana

My dad is going to bring the plates and cups. My dad

My mom is going to bring the desserts. My mom

Causative will

S + will have + object + past participle

I will wash the dishes.

I

Mary will hang the clothes.

Mary

Tony will mop the floor.

Tony

Carlos will walk the dog.

Carlos

Ana will take out the trash.

Ana

We will dust the furniture.

We

Causative Present Perfect

S + has / have + had + object + past participle

I have given the presents.

I

She has cut the flowers.

She

My friend installed the door.

My friend

My sister has bought a new car.

My sister

We have taken the phone with the technician.

We