

Fill in the following sentences with one of the words from the box:

|                                                                                                                                                  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| pageant   suffrage   bigot   mansplaining   misandrist   uproar   dream gapegalitarian   bropropriation   misogynist   patriarchy   oblivion |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

1. Calling someone a liberal _____ is like calling someone an honest liar .
2. Being a feminist doesn't necessarily make you a _____.
3. By the 1910s woman _____ had become a mass movement.
4. I fail to see how a society that has slavery can be considered an _____ society.
5. She left the Church because of its _____ teachings on women and their position in society.
6. Miss Earth is an annual international beauty _____ promoting environmental awareness.
7. It is time to challenge standardized doctrines of _____ and imperialism.
8. _____ is really just of a bigger issue. Gender inequality is the air we breathe, the current we swim against.
9. It seems that the so-called new theory is likely to sink into _____ .
10. The concept _____ most likely originated in a 2008 LA Times article titled "Men Who Explain Things To Me".
11. Her cookbook has caused an _____ over its assertions about avoiding gluten and dairy and the dangers of feeding children white flour, ice cream and sugar.
12. _____ describes a phenomenon where young girls, due to social constructions that women are less capable and valuable than men, are held back from living up to their full potential.