

Reading 9A activity C

C.  Read again and write T for True, F for False or NM for Not Mentioned.

1. The two rivers that fed the Aral Sea have dried up.
2. The Soviet Union decided to change the flow of the rivers because it wanted to make the surrounding area suitable for farming.
3. At the beginning of the twenty-first century, the Aral Sea had separated into four distinct parts.
4. The winter temperatures near the Aral Sea have dropped.
5. Livestock near the Aral Sea died because their drinking water became polluted.
6. Residents of the area built their own dam for the Aral Sea.
7. The World Bank intends to build more dams for the Aral Sea.
8. After the construction of the Kokaral Dam, water levels did not rise as fast as expected.
9. Today, the Aral Sea has been fully restored.

