

VSTEP WRITING TASK 1

1. You have just received an email from a friend of yours, Sarah from London. Read part of her email below.

This summer vacation, I intend to travel to your country. Can you suggest some places that I can visit? And where should I stay during the journey? Besides, are there any part-time jobs for a foreign student? I'm really looking forward to meeting you.

Write a reply to Sarah. In your email, you have to

- ask her what she wants to do
- suggest places that she can visit
- give her some advice about the accommodation
- suggest a part-time job.

Fill in the blanks with the words given.

• I am really happy • Could you tell me about • some good suggestions • has been a long time	• your summer holiday in Vietnam • a part-time job • which has wonderful beaches	• is really beautiful • affordable cost • hearing from you
--	--	--

Dear Sarah,

How have you been? It _____ since the last time we met. I am still doing fine.

I have just received your email about _____ so I am writing to tell you more about my country.

Well, _____ when I know you are going to travel to VietNam. _____ your plan in Vietnam? And you know, I could give you _____ for your trip. The summer in Vietnam _____ so you can go visit the beach. You might prefer Nha Trang _____. That is a travel city, so there are a lot of hotels, with _____ for students like you. And if you have a more time in Nha Trang, you may have _____ at coffee shops or convenient stores if you want.

Now I have to stop here. I am looking forward to _____ at your earliest.

See you later.

Your friend