

Ex. 1: Read the sentences and find the adverb of place:

|                                                                      |       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| 1. The children are sitting inside the classroom.                    | ..... |
| 2. The ball is by the book.                                          | ..... |
| 3. – Can you see the clouds?- Yes, they're above the man's head. | ..... |
| 4. Where's the park?- It's opposite the cinema.                  | ..... |

Ex. 2: Fill in the blank with one word:

|                                         |                                                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. The woman is ..... goodbye.          |   |
| 2. There are many .....in the pictures. |  |
| 3. The man is ..... some gold.          |  |

|                                               |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 4. She ..... for her friend yesterday. |   |
| 5. The boy is ..... the tree.          |   |
| 6. The girl is .....a jacket.          |  |