- "Have you seen my scarf?", Sue asked me.
Sue asked me
- "I'm too busy now", she said.
She said
- "Where are my keys?", he wondered.
He wondered
- "I can lend you my ruler, John", Jack said.
Jack told
- "Here is where I work, Susan", Helen said.
Helen told
- "My car broke down this morning", said Sid.
Sid said
- "I will cook and you can wash up", said Mary.
Mary told me

- Can you bring me my bag, please?, she asked me.

Question: She asked me

Request: She asked me

- "Don't touch this iron!" the teacher warned.

The teacher warned us

- "Let's invite your big brother", Sheila suggested to Karen.

Sheila suggested

- "Give me my book!", Maggie shouted at Susie.

Maggie told Susie

- "Wait for me here, please", he said.

He told us

- "I'm fed up with these exercises", David said.

David complained

- The teacher said, "yes, I am also tired of writing examples".

The teacher admitted that also tired of writing examples.

- "Why do we have to do so many stupid exercises?", David muttered.

David wondered to do so many stupid exercises.

- "I heard that, David", the teacher said.

The teacher told

- "I'm sorry, teacher", said David. "I am just tired."

David apologised and added that
