

MATCH THE WORDS TO THEIR DEFINITIONS
1. to posit (that)		a. boring and uninteresting
2. to crush		b. to put an end to a situation in which something stays the same and is therefore boring
3. to look over (your) shoulder		c. the disadvantage of a situation
4. deep down inside		d. to suggest something as a basic fact or principle from which a further idea is formed or developed
5. dull		e. to receive recognition, praise, or approval for something, whether or not it is deserved
6. to back sth up		f. the process that occurs after an order is placed from an online store which involves taking down products from warehouse or storage shelves and packing them into a box for shipment alongside a packing slip, invoice, flyer, etc.
7. "bless your heart"		g. to watch carefully what someone is doing
8. to jump to the top of the totem pole		h. to learn, master, or understand something perfectly, to the point of requiring little or no focus to do, recall, or accomplish it
9. to witness		i. to see something happen
10. firsthand		j. to do something unexpected that surprises and sometimes worries a person or animal
11. to scribble		k. to upset or shock someone badly
12. to delight		l. to pay back an amount of money to customers after they have bought something
13. to break up the monotony		m. to prove something is true
14. to pick and pack		n. to give someone great pleasure or satisfaction
15. to startle		o. to continue a course of action to its conclusion
16. to take to sth		p. to attend (something, such as a class or meeting) without officially participating
17. to go off the rails		q. in the part of your mind where your strongest and often most secret feelings are
18. in bulk		r. it refers to starting off at the top of the hierarchy in an organization
19. hairy		s. frightening or dangerous, especially in a way that is exciting
20. to gratify		t. something you say to tell someone you are grateful to them when they have been kind to you
21. to go all the way		u. in large amounts
22. to sit in on		v. it refers to experiencing something yourself
23. milestone		w. to start to use or do something as a habit
24. downside		x. to rub an object against a hard surface in order to make it sharper, thinner, or smoother
25. upside		y. to start behaving in a way that is not generally acceptable, especially dishonestly or illegally
26. to grind		z. to write or draw something quickly or without thought
27. to rebate		ii. marker in a project that signifies a change or stage in development, it shows key events and maps forward movement in your project plan.
28. have/get (sth) down pat		iii. the advantage of a situation
29. to take the credit (for sth)		iv. to please someone, or to satisfy a wish or need