

Anton OK. So we have a student for the summer . Let's discuss the web editor position next. Who do we have?

Sandra There were lots of emails for this one, but there are only two people really. First of all, there's Monica. I spoke to her on the phone and she's very . At the moment, she works  publishing.

Anton Is she an editor?

Sandra Yes. She has  experience in book editing, but she says she's good at  websites because she does some in her free time for friends and small businesses.

Anton OK. That sounds like a possibility. What about the other person?
