

Listen to the interview and tick the questions which are asked.

1. What about health and education?
2. When did it start?
3. What problems did they have?
4. How are these issues connected to women?
5. What happened after that?
6. How is that work continuing today?
7. What can men do to help?
8. Is this just about women?