Metaphor and Simile

A simile uses like or as to compare two things.

Metaphors do not use like or as to compare.

Directions: If the sentence is a simile write S. If the sentence is a metaphor write M

1. My dad is a bear in the morning before he drinks his coffee! ___
2. His feet were like baby dolphins. ___
3. The wind was an angry witch, howling across the night sky. ___
4. The lake was as smooth as glass. ___
5. When it was her turn to dance, Melissa was a graceful butterfly flitting across the stage. ___
6. " She had eyes like coffee saucers" ___
7. Steven's angry words were bullets that hit Greg right in his heart. ___
8. "His feet were like baby dolphins." ____
9. Summer in Maywille was an oven set to broil. ____
10. Her son was a bottomless pit.____
11. It was as quiet as a library. _____
12. The paper was a leaf clinging to a tree in a windstorm. ___
13. Mrs. Poole's class was a zoo! ___
14. There was something about her that was like sunshine. ___
15. This tiny office was a prison cell. ___

LIVEWORKSHEETS