

USED TO

Write the sentences using the verb "used to":

I lived in London, but I don't live there anymore.

I used to live in London

1. I played football at school. I don't play it anymore.

2. I had to get up early every morning. Now I have other job so I don't have to.

3. She lived in the country when she was a child.

4. She listened to rock music when she studied at school.

5. They lived in the neighbor village ten years ago. But now they live in other place.

6. He was a famous poet ten years ago. Now he writes short stories and novels.

7. She read detective stories 10 years ago. Now she reads fantasy novels.

8. We travelled a lot ten years ago. Now we don't travel so much.

9. Our mother cooked cakes every Sunday. Now she cooks cupcakes.

10. We read lots of comics at school. Now we write comics!

11. Kate studied hard last year. Now she is a little bit lazy.

12. They were great friends. But now they always quarrel.

13. He worked as a builder. Now he is an architect.

14. We listened to the radio when we were younger.

