5. Listen and complete the sentences.

Life was very different for people all over the world two hundred years ago. How did people _____ their day? They got up when the sun came up. There were no _____ so people did their _____ during the day.

Their chores were different, too. To get hot water, for example, people had to _____. Families had to _____ how to make soap and grow their own vegetables. They made their own clothes, too. And, of course, people had to _____ dishes by hand because there were no machines.

Today most people in the world have electric lights and _____. People still have to do chores, but in their free time, they can watch TV, make calls, and play video games.

Of course, not everybody lives this way. Many families don't like to spend a lot of time in front of the computer or TV. They prefer to go hiking or go on picnics. At home they like to talk, _____, and play card games with their friends and family. What about you?
