

TRUE OR FALSE

1. Comparing and contrasting are ways of exploring the similarities and differences between two things.
2. Comparing is telling how things are different.
3. Contrasting is telling how things are similar or alike.
4. Compare & Contrast will not help improve understanding about things.

Compare or Contrast

5. We can wear raincoat while hold the umbrella.
6. He is handsome but he's lazy.
7. Frogs and toads have long legs and big eyes.
8. Car is faster than the bike.
9. Chicken and ducks both live in the farm.
10. Pencils and crayons are fun to write with.
11. She's a lot more intelligent than him.
12. I have more freedom than my mother had.
13. Me and my sister went to the same college.

Butterflies and Bees

Butterflies and bees have many things in common. They are both Insects that live all over the world. Another similarity is that they both have 4 wings. Their wings are very different though. Butterflies have brightly colored wings and a bee's wings are transparent. Bees live in large groups called colonies. Butterflies do not. They often travel by themselves. Butterflies and bees are also similar because they both feed off of nectar and pollen from flowers.

