

Verbs + Infinitive

Verbs Followed by an Infinitive e.g. She agreed to speak before the game agree	beg	dare	forget	intend	offer aim	begin	decide	get	leap	plan appear	care	deserve	happen	leave	prefer arrange	choose	detest	have	like	promise ask	condescend	dislike	hesitate	long	propose attempt	consent	expect	hope	love	refuse be able	continue	fail	hurry	mean	start

1. Complete the sentences with the correct infinitive verbs from the boxes.

lend hold rain drive avoid run meet go bring pay

Mike and I arranged _____ to the cinema and we decided _____ at my house. He planned _____ us there in his new car. I only consented _____ with him because he promised _____ for the tickets. It was a disaster. As we got out of the car it began _____ and I had forgotten _____ my umbrella. We tried _____ to the cinema but we failed _____ the rain. Mike rushed to the door first, refused _____ me his coat and neglected _____ the door for me. What a gentlemen!

buy stay go enjoy watch x3

I wanted _____ a horror film but Mike begged _____ the new Star Trek movie. I consented _____ it if he swore _____ me some popcorn. I didn't expect _____ the film but it was so bad that I struggled _____ awake. I couldn't wait _____ home.

treat listen start have drive make be leave tell see stop talk

We intended _____ home but the car failed _____. As we were walking home we happened _____ Ana and David. We didn't stop _____ to them because they appeared _____ arguing. She was threatening _____ him. I didn't mean _____ but I wasn't able _____ myself. If you ask me Ana doesn't deserve _____ a guy like David. He always tries _____ to make her happy and she continues _____ him badly. I wouldn't dare _____ to tell her that though!

stop explain speak tell lower sneak go out

When I got home it was really late so I attempted _____ upstairs. However my parents were waiting _____ to me in the living room. They proceeded _____ me how worried they had been and threatened _____ me going out for the rest of the month. I attempted _____ what happened and they agreed _____ to one week. I don't aim _____ again anytime soon anyway!