

Expository Text Features.

Instructions: Write the right feature in the blank space.

	This text feature tells the reader more about the photograph or illustration. It has sentences.	 A group of fish is called a school.
	This text feature is the title of a section in the book. It tells the reader what the section is about.	Players on the Field Each team has eleven players on the field. One of the players is a goalie, and can use their hands inside the goal box.
	This text feature is usually a key word. The author made this word stand out because it is important in the text.	Texas Cities There are many cities in Texas. Austin is a city in Texas. Austin is also the capital of Texas. Dallas is another large city in Texas.
	This text feature is a picture that helps show the reader what the author is talking about.	 