

Let's catch a leprechaun!

Read the dialogue and choose the correct form of the verb.

A: Why don't we _____ a leprechaun this year.

B: Good idea. But how?

A: Well, we could _____ a shoebox trap.

B: Maybe. But a leprechaun is too clever for that. What about _____ a mouse trap?

A: A mouse trap is too small.

B: You're right. How about _____ a bird cage?

A: With some cookies inside?

B: Do leprechauns like cookies?

A: No. That's Santa who likes cookies.

B: I know. Let's _____ out a gold coin and when he comes, we'll grab him.

A: Leprechauns are too fast.

B: That's true.

A: Shall we just _____ about it until next year?

B: Yes. Let's.
