Lesson 2 Starting a Party

A Match.

1. pour the juice ____
2. put out the cupcakes ____
3. put up the decorations ____
4. set up the music ____
5. serve the pizzas ____
6. blow up the balloons ____

a.

b.

c.

d.

e.

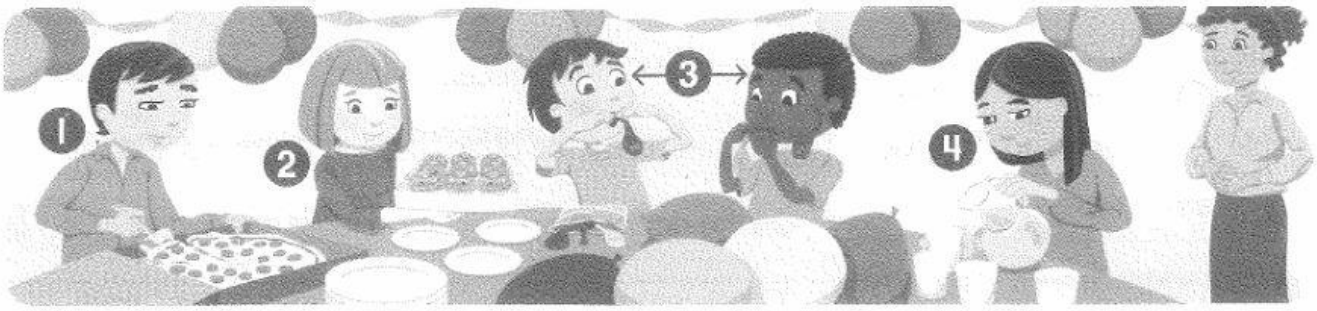

f.

B Look at A. Write.

1. Will she put up the decorations?
   Yes, she will.
2. _____ pizzas?
   _____
3. _____ juice?
   _____
4. _____ music?
   _____
5. _____ balloons?
   _____
6. _____ cupcakes?
   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C Write.

1. Who will serve the pizzas? He will.
2. _____ _____
3. _____ _____
4. _____ _____

Skills Reading

D Read and write.

A Party for Bill

Linda's older brother Bill is coming home from basketball camp. Linda's mother wants to have a party for him.

"What will you make for Bill?" asks Linda.

"I'll make chicken and rice," says her mother. "It's his favorite meal."

"What will Dad do?" asks Linda.

"He'll buy balloons at the store."

"Will he blow up the balloons?" asks Linda.

"Yes, he will, but you can help him," says her mother.

"I'll make some decorations," says Linda.

"That's a great idea," says her mother. "We'll put them up together. It's going to be a great party!"

1. Who will make chicken and rice?

_____

_____

2. Who will buy the balloons?

_____

_____

3. Who will make the decorations?

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS