

In English, a collocation is two or more words that typically work together.

Learning collocations is essential for making your English sound fluent and natural.

A. Choose the appropriate prepositions and fill in the blanks correctly.

Example: Michael Jackson was passionate on / about pop music.

about

1. They're arriving at / on / in Seoul on Friday.
2. That suitcase belongs from / to / for me.
3. We should ask someone at / for / of directions.
4. We might go camping, but it depends in / of / on the weather.
5. Who's going to pay for / to / with the meal?
6. Everybody laughed about / at / to me when I fell off the chair.
7. I dreamed about / from / to my old school friends last night.
8. That girl reminds me about / of / to my cousin.

B. Complete the following collocations using a preposition from the list. There is one extra answer.

in / at / with / to / for / about

1. Julio has been married _____ Cristina since 1990.
2. They're worried _____ their teenage son.
3. Peter Parker is famous _____ being part of the Avengers.
4. Karen is good _____ creating crafts.
5. I am fed up _____ this weather.