My most important ID is my passport. All Australian passports ¹have a kangaroo and an emu on the cover, which is really cool to me. Open my passport and there’s my name: Alexandros Leon Katsaros. My last name Katsaros is Greek – my father ²comes from Greece. He ³’s lived in Australia for nearly 35 years, but he ⁴’s visiting his mother, that’s my grandmother, in Athens at the moment. Katsaros ⁵means “curly-haired” – but for generations everyone in our family ⁶has had straight hair! My next most important ID? That’s my fitness center membership card. I’m on the local water polo team and I ⁷use the pool at the center four times a week. We ⁸haven’t won anything yet, but we’re determined to win the national competition this year.
