

Draw a line from the person to their legacy.

Robert E Lee

His most important legacy was the use of his words to fight for the freedom and rights of African Americans. He used his oratory and writing skills throughout his life to communicate his desire to free African American slaves which led to the Emancipation Proclamation.

Frederick Douglass

His legacy was his affable personality, honesty and intelligence helped him not just build a successful career in law but also establish a political career, abolish slavery and reunite the Northern-Southern states of America.

Abraham Lincoln

His legacy has stood as the standard for honorable action and faithful service. He is widely considered one of the greatest military leaders in world history. His successful strategies, tactics and leadership techniques are still taught all over the world today.