

Name _____

Date _____

Westward Expansion: Native Americans

- Which of the following Native tribes was not part of who white settlers called "the five civilized tribes".
 - The Cherokee
 - The Creek
 - The Seminole
 - The Yamasee
- What was the name of the president who went against the Supreme Court and ordered the removal of the tribes in the Southeast?
 - George Washington
 - Andrew Jackson
 - Abraham Lincoln
 - Chief John Ross
- In 1830, the _____ was passed, which required tribes to trade their southern lands and move west.
 - Trail of Tears Act
 - Seminole Act
 - Indian Removal Act
 - Cherokee Act
- Which law passed in 1787 allowed new lands to organize as territories, and later on as states, when their number of white settlers reached a certain amount?
 - The Southern Law Act
 - The Northwest Ordinance
 - The Indian Ordinance
 - The Westward Statute
- The event in which 16,000 Cherokee people were forcibly marched from their homeland to new land out west is known as _____.
 - The Cherokee Trail
 - The Oregon Trail
 - The Cherokee Reservation
 - The Trail of Tears
- Congress passed the _____ in 1851 to keep Native Americans off the lands white Americans wanted to settle.
 - Indian Appropriations Act
 - Indian Reservation Act
 - Native People Act
 - Westward Movement Act
- Who was the Seminole warrior who led his tribe in the fight against removal?
 - Osceloa
 - Chief John Ross
 - Andrew Jackson
 - Sequoyah
- Who was the Cherokee Chief who challenged the Indian Removal Act in court?
 - John Ross
 - George Washington
 - Osceola
 - Andrew Jackson
- True or False: The Northwest Ordinance outlawed slavery in the new western territories.
 - True
 - False
- True or False: The Supreme Court ruled in favor of the Cherokee when Chief John Ross challenged the Indian Removal Act.
 - True
 - False