

The fallen made an amber sea
Over which you flaunted like an breeze
A sapling soul in a sea of
Oh, I was.....for my Ophelia
But take heart, my
'Cause when I see..... I see hope
There's a world that what you got to give

Do you need all of the things you want
I'll take you back there, to where the 's from
To where the garden's but I forever know
Singing you're, heaven screaming on
I'd have you give like you can
I'd have you love like you can
I'd have you leave like you can
I'd have you be how you can.....
