

Read the text and answer the questions :

In every country throughout the world racism is an everyday reality. It has a lot of negative effects on the life of people who suffer from it. They often live in an environment where intense hatred and racial prejudice are directed towards them. The world of hostility which pervades their life has direct consequences on their social condition. In the field of work, the victims of racism face enormous difficulties. Job opportunities are very low for them. For those among them who are lucky enough to have regular jobs, they are underpaid and perform the most dangerous and risky tasks.

Exercise 1 : Read the text and say whether the statements are true or false.

- 1) Racism has positive effects on the life of people
- 2) People who suffer from racism always find jobs
- 3) Racism is found only in America
- 4) The victims of racism are suffering only in the field of work
- 5) people who face racism work in good and safe conditions of work

Exercise 2 : Read the text again and find the synonyms of the words :

- 1) casualties =
- 2) segregation =
- 3) occupations =

Exercise 3 : What or who do the underlined words refer to in the text ?

- It :
- They :
- Them :

Exercise 4 : Answer the questions according to the text.

- 1) It is said that people suffering from racism face many problems, give an example

- 2) What kind of jobs are they performed ?

- 3) Is it easy to live in a world full of racism ?

- 4) What can you say to people who support racism ?

