

Devide the words into two grammatical categories: verbs and nouns

What are the names of these packagings?

Watch and write what you can do to protect the environment:

I can

Read the text (p. 106) and answer the questions:

What things does pollution put in danger?

What kind of litter can you find in the woods?

How is rubbish dangerous for animals?

What things does rubbish pollute?

Choose the correct words:

The scientist conservationist works to protect plants and animals.

Recycling can save the environment rubbish.

Litter Conservationists can be dangerous for wild animals.

Pollution puts nature in on danger.

We should throw away recycle paper and plastic bottles.

Write the missing word:

A conservationist tries to protect the environment.

Many animals and plants die because of rubbish in the environment.

is dangerous for the environment.

Please put your rubbish in the bin.

Many young people care about the environment.

is a type of pollution.

about protect wrappers
rubbish
die pollution