It's festival time!

Listen and read. What does Kate draw?  20

1

Fin Right, you all have your ideas ready. Who wants to start?

Libby Where's Kate? Has she done the pictures yet?

Ed I don't know! She hasn't told me!

2

Libby This is awful! We need Kate's pictures.

Tom Look! Here she is!

3

Libby But these aren't sports! They're buildings!

Kate I couldn't draw sports. So, I used a ruler to draw buildings! It was easy!

4

Kate We're going to paint famous buildings from around the world. This is Big Ben in Britain and these are the pyramids in Egypt.

5 Later ...

Fin Well done! You've all got great ideas! Next week, we'll paint the murals and have a celebration! The theme is ... 'Around the world!' Please bring some traditional food from around the world!

6 The next week ...

Ed Our wall looks amazing!

Libby It's the best!

Tom That was a fantastic idea, Kate.

Working with words

We add the suffix -ous to some nouns to make adjectives.

noun	danger	poison	hazard
adjective	dangerous	poisonous	hazardous

When the noun ends in -e, we remove the -e and add -ous.

When the noun ends in -y, we change the -y to an -i and add -ous.

noun	fame	adventure	fury
adjective	famous	adventurous	furious

Select the right option

- 1 My mum was fury / furious when I broke the window.
- 2 I'm not interested in fame / famous. I don't want the world to know who I am.
- 3 Fireworks can be danger / dangerous, so be careful when you're near them.

Listen and read. Where is the reporter? 23

The festival has been on for five days now and there are still thousands of people in the streets of London. I've been here since nine o'clock this morning and it's been great! The procession has already finished. You can probably see the floats in the distance. There are food stalls everywhere and I've just eaten some delicious pancakes with chocolate sauce. I haven't seen any fireworks yet. They're going to be on later tonight.

REMEMBER

Present perfect with since and for

Use the present perfect and since to talk about past actions after a certain time or date, e.g. 2 p.m., last Saturday, May.

I've been here since nine o'clock this morning.

Use the present perfect and for to talk about past actions in a period of time, e.g. a week, two hours, a day.

The festival has been on for five days.

Present perfect with already, just, yet and before

We use these time words with the present perfect:

The procession has already finished.

I've just eaten some delicious pancakes.

I haven't seen any fireworks yet.

Have you eaten yet?

I've never eaten anything so delicious before.

Look! These time words are used in different places in the sentence.

Select the right option

- 1 I haven't been to a festival like this before / already.
- 2 He hasn't tidied his room already / yet, so he can't go out.
- 3 The girls haven't worn traditional clothes just / before.
- 4 I don't want a sandwich, thank you. I've just / yet had lunch.
- 5 Have you tried any of the food just / yet?
- 6 We've already / yet seen the fireworks. They were great.

Top Ten Food Festivals

Going to festivals is always fun, but going to festivals that have delicious food is even better! Here are some of our favourite food festivals around the world. They celebrate special foods that are made or grown in that part of the country.

- 1 If you like chocolate, you will love Eurochocolate. This festival takes place in October every year, in Perugia in Italy. It lasts for nine days. What does it celebrate? Chocolate, of course! Nearly one million people go to the festival every year. The streets are full of places to buy different kinds of chocolate snacks. You can also see chocolate sculptures. One year, there was a huge igloo made from chocolate bricks! At the end, the sculptures are broken up and given to people at the festival to eat!
- 2 The Gilroy Garlic Festival is one of the largest food festivals in the US. The festival takes place every year in Gilroy, California. It happens on the last weekend in July and it is one of the best garlic festivals in the world! So, what do people do? Well, they eat lots of things made with garlic, including garlic ice cream and garlic chips! There are also garlic cooking demonstrations! If you like garlic, this is a great festival to go to!
- 3 If you go to India in July, you should go to the Mango Festival! In India, mangoes are called 'the king of fruits'. Mangoes are grown in India and they are very popular! The mango festival is in Delhi and goes on for two days. There are more than 500 types of mango! You can taste different mango dishes, mango jams, mango juices, mango desserts and anything else with mango in it! There is also a competition with a prize for the biggest mango!
