

Cinderella is a fairy tale about a young girl. She's got blue eyes and blonde hair. She lives with her two ugly sisters and her wicked step mother. She gets up early and cleans the house every day. One day she gets a party invitation. It says, Cinderella asks her wicked step mother, 'Can I go to the party?' and she says, 'No, you can't'.

But, Cinderella has got a fairy godmother. She helps Cinderella get a dress and she helps her get to the party. Cinderella is wearing a beautiful dress and shoes. She meets Prince Harry at the party. At twelve o'clock Cinderella goes home. She runs and she hasn't got one shoe. The prince says, 'Where is Cinderella?'

The next day the prince looks for Cinderella but he can't find her. He looks all around town. He has got Cinderella's shoe and he asks the girls in town to try the shoe. He goes to Cinderella's house and her sisters try the shoe – their feet aren't small! The shoe is small. Cinderella tries the shoe and it is good! Hooray!

Cinderella and the prince live happily ever after.
