

Part A: Match the vocabulary to the definitions.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| 1. subscribe (v) | a. far more of something than you can deal with or process |
| 2. air (v) | b. watch a particular TV programme |
| 3. binge-watching (n) | c. have access to media on the Internet by paying a regular fee |
| 4. tune in (phr. v) | d. the act of showing a particular group of people and discussing issues relating to them |
| 5. flick through (phr. v) | e. broadcast a television/radio programme or a film |
| 6. overwhelming (adj.) | f. the act of watching multiple episodes of a TV show in one sitting, usually by streaming or on DVD |
| 7. thought-provoking (adj.) | g. quickly look through TV programmes or films without watching a lot of any particular one |
| 8. representation (n) | h. making you think deeply about a subject |

Part B: Put the vocabulary from Part A into the correct gaps in the following sentences. You may have to change the form of the word to fit the sentence.

1. We watched a brilliant documentary on veganism last night which made a really good case for it. I found it really _____ and it made me wonder if I should stop eating meat.
2. I've been _____ the TV channels for the last fifteen minutes and haven't found a single thing I want to watch.
3. Do you remember _____ each week to watch the latest episode of Friends? I must have seen every episode about four or five times since then.
4. The documentary I watched last night looked at the _____ of Asians in films and how negative it can be, even in recent films.
5. There's been so much political discussion on the news lately that it's hard to know the truth. It can be quite _____.
6. I was watching Fawlty Towers the other day and it's still hilarious. I can't believe the first time it _____ was in 1975!
7. Simon's been talking about Stranger Things for ages, so I spent the weekend _____ all four of the current seasons and now I'm as hooked as he is.
8. We've just started _____ to Disney Plus. The kids love it, but I'm not sure that I'm so keen, to be honest.