

A Busy Day at School and Home

Sophie woke up early and got dressed for school. She put on a shirt, a pair of jeans, and her favorite sneakers. She grabbed her backpack, which had all her school supplies, and headed to the kitchen for breakfast.

Her mom had prepared a delicious breakfast with eggs, toast, and orange juice. Sophie quickly ate her breakfast and headed out to school. As she walked to school, she noticed some furniture that had been put out on the street for garbage collection. There was a couch, a table, and some chairs.

When Sophie got to school, she went to her classroom and sat at her desk. Her teacher reminded everyone about the school rules, including no talking during class and no running in the hallways. After the lesson, Sophie went to the library and checked out a book to read during her free time.

At lunchtime, Sophie sat with her friends in the cafeteria and they talked about their day.

They shared their favorite rooms in their houses and talked about the furniture in those rooms. Sophie said her favorite room was her bedroom, which had a comfortable bed and a large wardrobe.

After school, Sophie went home and greeted her parents. She helped her mom in the kitchen to prepare dinner, and they talked about the types of food they liked. Sophie's dad came home from work and they all sat down to eat dinner together.

After dinner, Sophie went to her room to finish her homework. She sat at her desk, which had a lamp and some pens and pencils. She was grateful for all the school supplies she had, and for the comfortable furniture in her room.

As Sophie got ready for bed, she thought about her busy day. She had learned a lot at school, talked to her friends about their homes, and spent time with her family. She felt grateful for everything she had, and fell asleep with a smile on her face.
