

ENGLISH for 8th graders

Degree of Comparison

Comparative and Superlative Degrees

Complete the sentences with adjectives in brackets. Make any changes if necessary.

1. The novel has 247 pages. The dictionary has 1,500 pages. The dictionary is _____ (thick) than the novel.
2. Jakarta is much _____ (big) than Bandung.
3. Siti is the _____ (nice) girl I have ever met. She is a kind girl.
4. I love maths. I think it's the _____ (exciting) subject at school.
5. Which one is _____ (difficult), Physics or English?
6. Have you ever been to the Eiffel Tower? It is _____ (beautiful) than it looks on the internet.
7. Mika's music is interesting, but Debu's is _____ (interesting). I enjoy it very much.
8. 'Bintang' is the _____ (popular) magazine among teenagers in Indonesia.
9. The Taj Mahal in India is _____ (popular) than Prambanan temple in Central Java.
10. Surabaya is _____ (busy) than Bandung or Semarang.
11. Medan is _____ (crowded) than Jambi.
12. What is the _____ (high) mountain in the world?
13. Do you know the _____ (long) river in the world?
14. The Amazon is the _____ (large) rainforest in the world.
15. Sofyan is the _____ (smart) boy in my class. He can solve any maths problem.
16. My classroom is twenty meters wide, but Tata's classroom is twenty-five meters wide. So, my classroom is _____ (narrow) than Tata's. In other words, Tata's classroom is _____ (wide) than mine.
17. Gani is _____ (strong) than Danu because he can lift forty-five kilograms of stone. Danu can only carry thirty kilograms of stone. Danu is _____ (weak) because he is _____ (skinny) than Gani.
18. Doni is the _____ (diligent) student in his class. She is also the _____ (kind) boy I have ever known.

Knowledge has beginning but no end