

Draw a line from the picture of the person to the story, legend or historical account that represent that person.

Powhatan

Pocahontas

George Washington

Betsy Ross

Abraham Lincoln

Ledgens says that at six years old he got a new hatchet and damaged his father's cherry tree. And when his father asks him about it, he said "I cannot tell a lie".

She was named "Amonute," though she also had a more private name of Matoaka. She was called by a nickname, which meant "playful one," because of her frolicsome and curious nature. She was the daughter of Wahunsenaca

He was the father of Pocahontas and the ruler of the tribes that lived in the area where English colonists founded the Jamestown settlement in 1607.

He was an American lawyer, politician, and statesman who served as the 16th president of the United States from 1861 until his assassination in 1865. He led the nation through the American Civil War and succeeded in preserving the Union, abolishing slavery, bolstering the federal government, and modernizing the U.S. economy.

The flag of the United States of America is believed to be a design by this woman around the height of the American Revolution in the mid-to-late 1770s.