

Third Grade
The Fisherman and His Wife

A. Match

- Throne () A small roughly made and often dwelling.
 Wish () A spoken word or group of words believed to have magic power.
 Ceilings () A small house usually in the country or for vacation use.
 Empress () Something wanted.
 Cottage () The overhead inside surface of a room.
 Magic spell () The chair used by a king or queen.
 Fancier () A woman who rules an empire.
 Tiny hut () Not plain or ordinary. Of a high quality or price.

B. Fill in the chart with the correct headings.

Middle – Beginning – Characters – Setting – End

By the sea	The fisherman His wife The fish	The fisherman caught a big fish.	The fisherman's wife wants to live in a castle.	The fisherman went home to his wife in the tiny hut by the sea.

C. Complete the sentences by using the given words.

palace – prince – cottage – storm – wish – castle

- "Please let me go", the fish said. "I'm not a real fish. I'm really a _____ under a magic spell.
- The fisherman told his wife the story of the talking fish. "Did you make a _____?" She asked.
- The _____ has a living room, bedroom, and kitchen.
- The _____ has fine china, golden tables, crystal chandeliers, and carpets.
- The _____ has soldiers, drums, trumpets, and a throne.
- During the terrible _____, the wind blew, the lightning flashed, and the thunder crashed.