

CCQ prepositions of time

1. Is "at" used for a specific point in time?
2. Can we say in the night?
3. Do we use "at" to talk about an exact hour or minute?
4. Can we use "at" to refer to a specific event, holiday or occasion?
5. Can we say on the weekend?
6. Do we use "in" to refer to months, years, seasons, or decades?
7. Is "on" used for a specific day or date?
8. Can we say in Friday?
9. Do we use "on" to refer to days of the week or special occasions?
10. Can we say at the morning?