Past Perfect Practice II

Yesterday, Sally and Tim _____ (make) a really nice snowman. They _____ (wait) for enough snow for weeks.

Aunt Molly's cat _____ (only be) dead for a week, when she _____ (find) and _____ (adopt) a really sweet stray dog.

Little Sue _____ (try) for so long, but last night she finally _____ (make) her first steps.

By seven p.m. she _____ (read) to him for hours, but he simply _____ (will) fall asleep.

The other week I _____ (meet) an old friend from school, but he _____ (change) a lot, I almost _____ (recognize) him.

When I _____ (arrive) at Grandma's, she _____ (make) some fresh muffins especially for me.

I couldn't believe my eyes, when I _____ (see) Tina's uncle last week, he _____ (look) for food others _____ (throw) away.

This morning, I _____ (go) to the beach to try out my new boogie board. I _____ (save) for one for months and last week I finally _____ (have) enough money to buy one.

Uncle Pete _____ (spend) his vacation in the West, but he _____ (imagine) cowboy life to be more interesting, so he _____ (come) back a bit disappointed.

This afternoon, Mikey _____ (teach) Billy how to swim. Billy _____ (be) afraid of water.

© Regina Voitl 2010

ISLCollective.com

LIVEWORKSHEETS