Roro Anteng and Joko Seger was a couple. They lived in a village in Bromo Mountain. They did not have any child.

They prayed to God. Then an old man came and said "You will have 25 children. However, you must sacrifice your youngest son." Months later, Roro Anteng gave birth to a baby. Several years later, they had 25 children. They named Warih Kusuma.

They led a peaceful life. One night Joko Seger remembered the old man. He talked to Roro Anteng. They prayed to God at the crater because they could not sacrifice Warih Kusuma. Suddenly, the sky got dark and they heard thundering voice. The family runs away from the crater.

Unfortunately, when the sky got clear, Warih Kusuma was lost.

They heard Warih Kusuma's voice from the crater "Please release me, but give a sacrifice every year."

Finally Roro Anteng and Joko Seger released Warih Kusuma. The name of Roro Anteng and Joko Seger was adopted as the name of the place, TENGGER. Since that day the people of tengger sacrifice cattles and crops on Kasodo Ceremony.
