

EASTER IN THE UK

<https://youtu.be/lu3U5QCRH6s>

Watch the video about Easter in the UK, and decide whether the following sentences are true or false.

- Easter is the biggest religious event of the year in the UK.
a) True                      b) False
- Easter is an important time of the year for non-religious people.
a) True                      b) False
- The date of Easter changes every year.
a) True                      b) False
- Easter always takes place at the end of winter.
a) True                      b) False
- Easter eggs were originally made of chocolate.
a) True                      b) False
- Easter eggs symbolize the resurrection and new life of Jesus Christ.
a) True                      b) False
- Easter egg hunts are usually held indoors due to the bad weather in the UK.
a) True                      b) False
- Both real painted eggs and chocolate eggs are used for Easter egg hunts.
a) True                      b) False
- British schools organize many events and competitions related to Easter.
a) True                      b) False
- The Easter bonnet parade is a famous event in the UK.
a) True                      b) False
- Egg-rolling competitions involve rolling raw eggs down a slide or hill.
a) True                      b) False
- Egg-decorating competitions are no longer popular in the UK.
a) True                      b) False
- The Easter hen brings the eggs at Easter.
a) True                      b) False
- Chocolate bunnies are popular gifts at Easter.
a) True                      b) False
- Around 18 million chocolate eggs are eaten in the UK at Easter.
a) True                      b) False

Source: Learn English with EnglishClass101.com