

SOCIOLOGY (2)

1. With plan, Gandhi chose his method of protest against the British when he decided in 1930 to lead a 240-mile march to the sea to collect salt.
A. meticulous
B. sweeping
C. unconscionable
D. succumb
2. American leaders increasingly supported black civil rights both legislatively and
A. meticulous
B. crackdown
C. oratorically
D. platform
3. American public views of the Civil Right Movement were not nearly so
A. unconscionable
B. sweeping
C. traction
D. sanguine
4. A national holiday in the USA celebrates its leader, Martin Luther King Jr.
A. sanguine
B. preeminent
C. sweeping
D. meticulous
5. India's victory came 17 years later in 1947, when the British to pressure and recognized India as an independent nation.
A. traction
B. platform
C. succumb
D. cast
6. Most marchers continued to stick to nonviolent resistance even in the of the British.
A. cast
B. crackdown
C. meticulous
D. nurture
7. Even though George Wallace ran on an openly racist, he was reelected.
A. nurture
B. platform
C. cast
D. nurture
8. Mass media often leaders of the civil rights movements as heroes
A. crackdown
B. platform
C. cast
D. succumb
9. Mass media helped white sympathy for black struggles.
A. nurture
B. cast
C. sweeping
D. crackdown
10. Gandhi's act brought changes to the entire society.
A. sweeping
B. traction
C. unconscionable
D. succumb
11. Gandhi's movement gained; thousands of Indian join Gandhi's march.
A. sweeping
B. traction
C. cast
D. oratorically
12. It was to tax on salt, a thing that millions of poor people required.
A. unconscionable
B. succumb
C. meticulous
D. platform

Choose the word from the box to fill in the blanks.

A. ostracize	B. inflict	C. preach	D. saddled with	E. galvanize
F. alienate	G. laud	H. emulate	I. plight	J. slain

1. They the abolition of established system but propose nothing to replace them.
2. Finally untrustworthy individuals are identified and within the organization, and in turn the overall security of the organization is maintained.
3. Be sure to understand what you are signing up for or you may find yourself with rate increases or extremely high rates for different types of transactions.
4. Nutrition studies its low-fat content and suggest it as a healthy alternative to red meat.
5. I sympathize with the of farmers today, who see their livelihoods threatened by consumers refusing to buy such hybrids.
6. Confucius considered Chou Kung the model minister whom all potential officials should
7. He decided to talk loudly and the team into action.
8. In my parenting class, we learned that disciplining through fear your children.
9. Frightening cruelties were on child factory workers into the 19th century.
10. He was found in an alley two blocks from his apartment.