Rules of forming the 3rd person singular (when using he, she it)
The verbs in the 3rd person singular get -s ending. There are some spelling rules you have to learn.

1. Y changes into -i in the end of the verbs if there is a consonant before it.
   e.g. try = tries but not play = plaies as there is a vowel before the y.
2. If the verb ends with -ss, -sh, -ch, -o or -x it gets -es ending in the 3rd person singular.
   e.g. wish=wishes, mix=mixes, watch=watches, miss=misses, go=goes
